Dr. Glazer earned his Medical Degree at McGill University and completed his residency at the University of Ottawa with Certification in both Family Medicine and Emergency Medicine. He has been a Lecturer at the University of Toronto in the Department of Family and Community Medicine for over 14 years and was the previous Education Director for the Emergency Department at Toronto General and Toronto Western Hospitals. In 2012 he completed enhanced certification in Family Medicine receiving Fellowship status from the Canadian College of Family Physicians. He currently practices comprehensive Family Medicine at Focus Medical. He generally works 2-3 days per week with his most common days being Tuesdays and Thursdays. His clinical interests include Cardiac Prevention and an evidence based approach to Primary Care.